M. E. CONFERENCE.

The Twenty-Seventh Meeting
Assembles at Omaha.

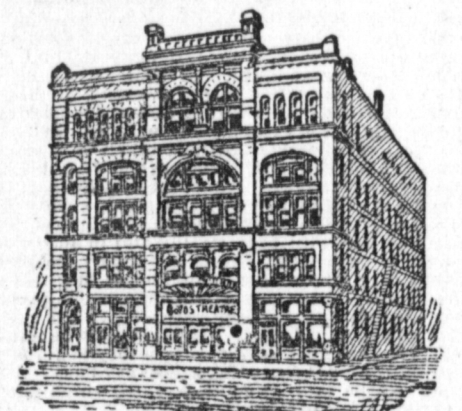

AN IMPORTANT GATHERING.

All the Great Lights of the Church, Both Ministers and Laymen, Are Present. Questions of Deep Moment Are to Be Decided by This Conference, Which Will Last During the Entire Month.

BISHOP BOWMAN.

OMAHA, May 3.—At exactly 9 o'clock yesterday morning, Bishop Bowman rapped to order the first business session of the Twenty-seventh quadrennial general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. The immense auditorium of the Boyd theater hardly sufficed to accommodate the immense throng of delegates and visitors attracted by the meeting.

BOYD'S THEATER, OMAHA.

It is estimated that in addition to the 500 regular delegates present there are fully 4,000 visitors in attendance. The six tier of boxes were occupied by the wives and families of the eighteen bishops of the church. The conference was opened by scriptural reading by Bishop Newman, followed by an earnest prayer by Bishop Foss. Continuing the religious services Dr. Lonoan, of Baltimore, read another passage from the scriptures and the immense congregation united in an old Methodist hymn. The conference then proceeded to complete its organization.

But One Absentee.

With the exception of Bishop Taylor, of Africa, who has not yet reached the city, all of the bishops were seated upon the platform, and during the long roll call of delegates which followed the religious exercises they furnished to the audience a study of intellect that bore silent witness to the falsity of the repeated statement that the brainy men of today are found in the ranks of the infidels.

Secretary Elected.

At the conclusion of the roll call the conference proceeded to the election of a secretary. Dr. S. D. Monroe, of Pennsylvania, the former secretary, and Dr. Manley S. Hard, of Wyoming, were candidates for the position. When the result of the ballot was announced, Dr. Monroe was declared elected secretary by a nearly two-thirds majority. He immediately announced as his assistants Manley Hard, of Wyoming, and Charles Hudson, of Indiana.

The Trouble Begins.

After the election of a secretary the permanent seating of delegates was in order. Immediately the old trouble between the lay and ministerial delegates came to the surface. The lay delegates held a meeting Saturday afternoon and decided to ask the conference to seat them by themselves separate from the ministers, thinking by this means to secure greater recognition than they now have, and they were present with their request.

Oldest Member of the Conference.

Dr. John Lonoan, of Baltimore, the oldest member of the conference, spoke favoring the laymen, saying that he sympathized with them and believed that they should be accorded equal representation with the ministers and as the conference had refused this it was only right that they should be allowed to mass themselves together and thereby secure greater recognition.

J. C. Shinkle, of Kentucky, a layman, spoke strongly against the division. Judge Murray, of Pennsylvania, said that this request was not brought up with any idea of opposition to the ministers, but only that the laymen might have a greater influence, for when 150 laymen were scattered around among 350 ministers their individuality was lost sight of.

Postmaster Field, of Philadelphia, spoke strongly in favor of the laymen, and even went so far as to say that unless the request was granted the laymen had no place in the conference, for unless they could be seated in a separate body they had no influence and they might as well pack their valises and return home. Many others spoke strongly pro and con on the question.

Manner of Voting.

J. M. Buckley, editor of The Christian Advocate, favored the request, and Dr. L. C. Quel, of Wyoming, opposed it. Considerable feeling was worked up over the question and proper Methodist decorum was preserved at times with difficulty. When the discussion of the question was stopped another misunderstanding arose over the manner of voting. Some wanted the laymen to vote separately on the question and then for the ministerial delegates to vote in the same manner. Some wanted to be put on record on the question and others wanted a viva voce vote. A ye-a and nay vote finally prevailed by orders and resulted as follows: Laymen—ye-a, 105; nay, 61. Ministerial—ye-a, 162; nay, 135.

The conference then took a recess.

Conference Changes Quarters.

The conference reassembled at 4 p. m. at Exposition hall, where all future sessions will be held, and attempted to get through the task of securing seats. This was no easy task. Dr. Shickle attempted to have the motion to allow lay delegates to choose seats by themselves considered, and succeeded in getting it so modified that after the layman wanted to sit among the preachers he could. Then a wordy wrangle ensued on the allotment of seats. A colored brother, Rev. R. E. Gilham, of Missouri, secured the first seat and took the best one in the house amid much laughter.

EXPOSITION BUILDING, OMAHA.

The drawing of seats progressed, but F. J. Young, of North Dakota, took umbrage because his name came not, and plainly stated that "there was some shenanigan with the hat," and quite a heated colloquy ensued. At 6 o'clock all the seats had not been assigned as quite a number were insinuating that they were not getting fair treatment. "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow" was sung and the delegates adjourned for the day to avoid further strife.

Reception and Banquet.

Last night the delegates and visitors were given a reception by the mayor and city officers. The meeting was called to order by Bishop Newman, of Omaha, and after the usual devotional exercises Mayor George P. Bemis delivered the address of welcome in which he extended the hospitality of the city to the Methodists and their friends.

President Davis, of the city council, spoke of "Our City Government," detailing the history of Omaha from its birth to the present day and explaining the machinery by which the government is managed. He spoke of the phenomenal growth of Omaha which in a decade has grown from a village of 1,000 souls to a metropolis inhabited by 150,000 people and closed with words of welcome.

Hon. H. D. Estabrook, whose fame as an orator extends even to the national capital, spoke of "Our Guests and Ourselves." The young man's words were heartily applauded and after his allotted time had been used up he was urged to go on.

"Western Methodism" was the theme of an excellent speech by Judge Jacob Fawcett, who described the trials and hardships of the western circuit rider and dwelt upon the great influence which Methodism now exerts in the west.

The response to the speeches was by Bishop Bowman, whose lovable countenance won the hearts of all. He spoke of the doubt with which the conference was given to Omaha, but stated that all doubts had been dispelled by the hospitable treatment and ample accommodations given the delegates.

The delegates were then presented to the mayor and the bishops, after which refreshments were served in the banquet hall adjoining, and an hour spent in making new friendships and renewing old ones.

Importance of this Conference.

The importance of this conference will be known when it is stated that this is the largest ecclesiastical body that assembles in this country. It is constituted of the seventeen bishops—who are presidents, in turn, but have no vote and no voice except by courtesy—305 ministerial and 183 lay delegates, representing 134 annual conferences and missions, with a total of 30,079 preachers, traveling and local, and 2,400,000 lay communicants.

This occasion has brought to this city the most prominent and influential ministers and laymen of that denomination from every state and territory in the Union, together with a perfect multitude of visitors. In many respects this gathering is the most important of its character that has ever been held save that of 1844, when the church divided on the slavery question—an event regarded by many as the entering wedge of the great civil war.

Change in the Church's Policy.

For more than a year there have been rumors of an impending change in the policy of the church, some of them of a radical character, which can be effected only by the legislation of the greatest deliberative body of the denomination. This is the twenty-seventh general conference in the history of the church, the first having been held in Baltimore in 1784, when the church was young and the delegates scattering.

Questions to Be Considered.

Among the questions which the conference will be called upon to decide are those relating to an increase in the number of bishops, the time limit con-tro, the question of giving the colored brethren representation on the board of bishops, and the right of women to sit as delegates. The bishop question is uppermost and has dislodged the woman question from first place. Four years ago the all-absorbing question among Methodists centered around the sisters; were they, or were they not laymen? For four days the last general conference wrestled with the question.

Women Not Admitted Four Years Ago.

It was finally decided by a close vote, that a restrictive rule barred their admission, and that this constitutional barrier could only be removed by a three-fourths vote of the annual conferences, which, when attained, would have to be ratified by a vote of two-thirds of the general conference. The women delegates—there were five of them, including Frances E. Willard—were not admitted to the conference.

Decided by the Church.

The question was submitted to a vote of the church, and failed, though receiving a considerable majority. A consensus of the lay membership was obtained by a vote overwhelmingly in favor of female representation, but it has no legal significance. Some have proposed the bringing of the matter before the conference in the shape of a resolution, and the sweeping of it through on the ground that the submission of the question in the conferences was not necessary, and the body itself is the sole judge of the qualifications of its members; or it can be done by one of the two women elected as reserves claiming a seat, the principal absentee himself. Should these or similar courses be pursued, there would be trouble, and possibly secession.

The Color Question.

The question, also, of the election of a colored bishop, will be exciting. The negro delegates will claim representation in the Episcopacy, but they will not succeed or secede.

Some of the Bishops Growing Old.

There are eighteen bishops on the episcopal board, including the two missionary bishops. They hold office for life and no provision is found in the book of discipline for retiring them, unless for maladministration or some kindred cause. Some of these good bishops are well along in years. Three of them are over seventy, and it is said they have survived their period of usefulness. But they beg leave to differ and do not care to relinquish office because they have reached the years of three score and ten.

New Bishops to Be Elected.

It is quite likely that several new bishops will be elected, and in addition several missionary bishops, one for South America, one for China and Japan, and one for Europe. About a score of men are mentioned for these places. Dr. Drees would make a capital bishop for South America, of which part of the vineyard he is now superintendent. Dr. M. C. Harris, of San Francisco, or Dr. Nathan Sikes, of Foo Chow, could not be improved upon for China and Japan. Dr. William Burt, of Rome, will surely be considered if it is decided to locate a missionary bishop in Europe.

Pastors Asking More Power.

A strong memorial will be presented to the conference, asking it to enact such legislation as will enable pastors to drop members who do not support the church according to their ability, to elect bishops for eight years without privilege of re-election, to remove the limit from the pastorate, to provide for the election of presiding elders with or without the nominations of the bishop, and to give the cabinet with the bishop the power of making appointments, a majority of the presiding elders being sufficient to determine an appointment. The conference will be in session during the entire month, and will meet in the Exposition building, which will seat over 8,000 people.

RAILROAD DISASTER.

A Freight Train Plunges Through a Bridge, Killing Three People.

WESTVILLE, Ind., May 3.—A north-bound freight train on the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago railway was wrecked at a point a mile north of Otis, at 12:30 yesterday morning. Train No. 56, John Murray engineer, dashed through a bridge. The engine and eight cars went down, and the caboose and two cars remained on the track.

The bodies of the engineer, fireman and brakeman who were in the cab of the engine when it struck the bridge are buried in the water beneath an immense amount of wreckage. Superintendent Collins and the wrecking train, with a large force of men, are at work clearing the debris. Traffic has been abandoned north of Otis.

The heavy downfall of rain, which set in about 6 o'clock last evening, washed away the foundations of the bridge, leaving the top portion of the structure intact. There was no warning, and the train dashed headlong into the water beneath the sinking structure.

The Killed are:

Engineer John Murray, of Michigan City, Ind., who leaves a wife and two children.

James Bowen, fireman, a single man, of Monon.

Elmer Brown, forward brakeman, of Michigan City.

A Reckless Lover.

ANDERSON, Ind., May 3.—George Doyle went to the residence of Earl Dudding, a farmer near Anderson, Sunday morning. Mrs. Dudding was sitting on the porch beside her husband. Doyle coolly sat down on her lap and kissed her. Dudding remonstrated, when Doyle attempted to outrage Mrs. Dudding. The husband drew his revolver and fired three times, shooting Doyle through the right elbow, thigh and right lung. Doyle will die. Dudding came to this city and gave himself up to the authorities. Mrs. Dudding is said to have been intimate with Doyle. Dudding takes the offense coolly, and his conduct is regarded as justifiable.

HOUSE AND SENATE.

Proceedings of Both Branches of Congress.

IMPORTANT BILLS PASSED.

Under a Suspension of Rules the House Transacts Considerable Business—A World's Fair Petition Sent to the Senate—Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Yesterday being suspension day several important bills were passed, under suspension of the rules, including the bill to place binding twine on the free list, which was called up by Mr. Bryan, of Nebraska, who rather surprised the Republicans by bringing the bill before the house in this way.

Among the other measures passed were: A bill to encourage American ship building, which authorizes a register to vessels of the United States to such foreign-built steamships of 8,000 tons and over sailing in an established line from a port with the United States of which not less than 90 per cent. of the foreign capital was owned by citizens of the United States; granting a pension of $8 per month to the survivors of the Black Hawk, Creek, Cherokee and Seminole wars; to ratify and confirm an agreement with the Indians residing on the Colville reservation, in the state of Washington; appropriating $150,000 to carry out the stipulations regarding the Behring sea treaty; appropriating $100,000 to establish a military post at or near Helena; to provide for the permanent preservation and custody of the records of the volunteer armies, and authorizing the president to appoint a proper person as chief of the record and pension division with the rank of colonel.

The house then continued the discussion of the diplomatic, and consular bill and without action thereon adjourned.

Senate Proceedings.

In the senate Mr. Vest, in handing up to be "appropriately referred," a petition protesting against opening the world's fair on Sunday and threatening by resolution to taboo all congressmen who failed to support the closing of the exposition on Sunday, said that as a senator he should vote on the question without paying the slightest attention to the important resolution. The petition was referred. After business of a routine nature the senate passed several public building bills, and shortly before 2 o'clock went into secret session on the Russian and French extradition treaties. At 4:10 the doors were reopened and the senate adjourned.

Secret Session.

French extradition treaty was taken up by the senate in secret session and discussed for two hours. Its provisions were thoroughly explained to the senate by Messrs. Sherman, Morgan and other members of the committee on foreign relations. Very little interest was taken in the debate by a majority of those present and it is probable that it will be adopted without opposition. The objections made to most extradition treaties concerning the danger of extradition for political offences were not forthcoming in this discussion.

Mrs. Harrison Slowly Recovering.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Mrs. Harrison was so much improved yesterday that her physician encouraged her to spend most of the day sitting up in an easy chair. Her bronchial attack was followed by malarial fever, and the last few days by symptoms of lumbago, so that she has gone through quite a siege. She is nervous and weak, but she will soon recover. Just as soon as she is able to travel Mrs. McKee will take her mother away to remain until her health is fully restored. The chances are that they will go down to Virginia Beach.

An Aerial Electric Mail Car.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—A new fast mail system, said to be capable of wonderful speed, has been devised by Dr. B. E. Osborn, of Auburn, N. Y. It consists of an aerial electric mail car made of aluminum, supported with hydrogen gas and running on two large trolley wires. Electricity from the wires communicates through the motor inside the car and sets into rapid motion a series of fans and wings. The front is surmounted by an electric light. This car, it is claimed, will transport about one hundred pounds of mail.

Fortification Appropriation.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The house committee on appropriations took final action on the fortification appropriation bill yesterday. The bill as reported carries an appropriation of $2,412,376, being $8,974,431 less than the estimates and $1,362,427 less than the appropriation for the current fiscal year.

Probably Nine Sailors Drowned.

DULUTH, May 3.—The steamer A. Everett arrived here yesterday without her tow schooner, the Sophia Minch, and grave fears are felt for the crew of nine men and their boat. The Minch left Duluth on Thursday morning at a point about three miles this side of the outer island. She was coal laden and commanded by Captain Joseph Lamhow, of Cleveland.

Baron De Fava Is Coming Back.

ROME, May 3.—Baron De Fava, recalled from the Washington embassy at the time of the New Orleans massacre, has left Rome for Southampton, where on Saturday he will embark for New York. He will proceed directly to Washington.

Demon Deeming Dosed.

MELBOURNE, May 3.—The trial of Deeming for the murder of his last wife, formerly Miss Mather, of Rainhill, was concluded yesterday. He was found guilty and sentenced to death.

What a remarkable change in a few days. Only last Thursday our neighbor was denouncing the BULLETIN for talking down Maysville—something we have never done during our long existence. Yesterday, our neighbor was contrasting Maysville with Lexington, and deriding this city for its alleged lack of enterprise.

"The American people to-day wear more shoddy than do the people of any other country on the face of the globe," asserts an exchange, and the statement is no doubt true, as the shoddy mills are flourishing. The owners of these mills are opposed to the Free Wool bill, of course. They think "shoddy" good enough for the people of this country.

"The airy disregard of protection organs for cold truth and exact facts," says the New York World, "is illustrated in the current remark that the McKinley tariff 'lowered many duties and took off many, but it also raised some and made them strong for protection.' Who could guess from this the truth that the McKinley tariff raised the average and the great majority of duties in every schedule save two; that of 300 articles or classes yielding more than 80 per cent. of the revenue from customs the law increased the duty on 235, left it unchanged on fifty and reduced it on only fifteen? For the first time in the history of civilized governments an act was constructed upon the avowed theory of reducing the revenues by increasing taxes. It was meant to shut out foreign goods and thus to give a monopoly to favored home producers by raising the duties to a point which would prohibit or greatly diminish importations. If it has failed in doing this at any point, by so much has it failed to accomplish its purpose. And wherein it has not failed the people are taxed higher than they were before."

Railway Employees on a Strike.

Two hundred men employed by the L. and N. and Kentucky Central at Covington went on a strike yesterday for an increase of wages to $1.50 a day. Their pay was reduced last Friday from $1.35 to $1.25 per day.

The men say the strike will be general along both roads, and that an effort will now be made to get the conductors, brakemen and engineers to join issue with them and tie up all traffic.

Alba Heywood.

Alba Heywood, it is not too much to say, is one of the most versatile actors on the American stage to-day, and in his character impersonations he is above rivalry as well as criticism, says an exchange. The scope, too, of his work is extensive and he acts the part of an old maid "Mabel Mullett" as naturally as he does that of Carleton's octogenarian, who deplored the new church organ; the part of Silly Billy as effectively as that of Uncle Joe. One of his most famous impersonations is that of the Chinese washerman, and his portrayal of this character simply convulsed the house. A taking feature too of his performance was his topical songs. Mr. Heywood was frequently and vociferously encored.

At the opera house next Friday night.

Women's Relief Corps.

The recent annual meeting of the Women's Relief Corps was one of the most pleasant ever held in the State. There was a larger attendance than usual. Mrs. Vincent, President of the organization, submitted her annual report, in which she said:

"I have the honor to submit the following report of relief given during the year:

Cash expended.....$320 25
 "Our department is very small, but we have given relief to all who asked and were worthy."
 "A great many individual donations have been given, such as clothing, etc., valued at $200 for the year."
 "Total amount of relief given during the year, over $500."

The following officers were elected: Mrs. Mary Ninekirk, President; Miss May Brooks, Secretary, and Mrs. Louisa Kern, Treasurer.

KENTUCKY CROPS.

What the State Commissioner of Agriculture Says of the Outlook.

Wheat Never Looked Better—To bacco Plants Plentiful—Fruit Prospects Good.

State Commissioner of Agriculture McDowell has sent out his report, giving the condition of crops at the close of the month of April. He says:

"In my report of April 1st I gave the condition of what at 92 as compared with same time last year. The last days of March and first days of April were fine for wheat, in fact, vegetation of all kinds indicated an early spring; but on April 8th the weather changed, the temperature dropped to and below 30, with several hard freezes, and continued cold and cool until about the 25th; but from nearly all reports the wheat was not damaged, and I have to report it never looking better at this time of the year, and a bountiful harvest is anticipated. Amount of old wheat on hand 8 1/2 per cent.

"Corn—Very little corn planted, owing to the very wet weather; from the 25th to the 28th the weather was fine for planting, but not many farmers were ready. The planting season is later than it used to be. The larger part of the crop used to be planted in April, now the larger part of it is planted in May, and often running into June. Report as to acreage, 85 per cent.

"Sorghum—Acreage as compared with last year, 65 per cent.

"Potatoes—Acreage, compared with last year, 89 per cent.

"Tobacco—As to acreage compared with last year, 85 per cent.; plants plentiful and looking well, in some few places killed by frost, and washed out and covered up by heavy rains.

"Clover—The sowing this spring escaped the freezes and looks well. As compared with last year, 101 per cent.

"Timothy is not so well advanced as clover, but is looking well; as compared to last year, 100 per cent. Pastures of all kinds looking well, but would be improved by some warm sunny days.

"Hemp—The present crop not all broken; weather has been very unfavorable for breaking, which will keep back plowing for new crop, and cause late sowing; the average for this year will be small, 74 per cent.

"Fruit—The early fruit was thought to be all killed by the freezes of April. Some very early cherries and strawberries were killed, but enough escaped to make a large yield. Very few early apples killed, and from present indications the crop of apples will be abundant. Reports vary as to the peach crop; some correspondents report them badly damaged, while others report that the crop will be abundant, unless killed hereafter. Estimated per cent. 65.

"All kinds of stock wintered well, except in some few counties sheep have not done well. Since my last report there has been some improvement in price of mules, from the fact there is a better demand for cotton. The fat cattle market is fully one dollar per hundred less than this time last year.

"The demand for garden seed and seed corn has been very great. I wish I could have been able to have supplied them all, but it would have required a very large appropriation to have done so."

Colonel McDowell says: "The action of the Legislature in appropriating $100,000 for Kentucky's exhibit at the World's Columbian Exposition, to be held at Chicago, ought to be gratifying to every farmer in the State. Governor Brown has appointed five Commissioners, who are honest and judicious men, to take charge of the money, and they will make such an exhibit as will be of great value to the business interest of the State, and who doubts that, in the competition for the various prizes, that there will be more money brought back in premiums to Kentucky than was appropriated by the Legislature."

Boulanger Souvenirs Fawnd.

A curious result of the decline and fall of General Boulanger has been brought to light in the public pawn offices. These state supported establishments, called generally monts de pieté, have been inundated of late with busts and medallions of the defunct general. The pledges in marble, plaster of paris or bronze have been put in the clon by poor enthusiasts, who in the days of Boulanger's brief glory desired to have a memento before them of him whom they deemed to be the "coming man." One branch office in the Montmartre-Clignancourt district, where M. Boulanger was particularly popular, is said to have nineteen busts of the departed agitator.—London News.

THE MARKETS.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.

The offerings at auction for the week just closed were 1,774 hhd., classed as follows: 391 hhd. Mason County (Ky.) District, 518 hhd. Pendleton County (Ky.) District, 171 hhd. Owen County (Ky.) District, 325 hhd. Blue Grass (Ky.) District, 367 hhd. Brown County (Ohio) District, 2 hhd. Indiana and 5 hhd. West Virginia, of which 1,297 hhd. were new, against 1,433 hhd. the previous week of which 1,029 hhd. were new, and 2,017 hhd. the corresponding week last year, of which 1,192 hhd. were new. Total offerings of the year to date 42,687 hhd., of which 22,115 hhd. were new, against 40,586 hhd. same time last year, of which 16,492 hhd. were new.

Receipts for the week.....1,005

Receipts same week last year.....1,011

While the offerings were some larger than previous week they were of only fair size, and the receipts continue light. As there was a fairly good season the latter part of the week for handling and pricing there will be an improvement in the receipts, and the offerings will no doubt be heavier. The week's business taken as a whole was fairly satisfactory. The market did not show any marked change from the latter part of last week, being firm, with a good, steady demand. Common trash, lugs and nondescripts were, as usual, in large supply and in active demand at prices that were generally accepted. There is a larger number of buyers in quest of these grades than of the others, thus causing more competition and keeping prices firm. Common and medium leaf show a good steady demand, but prices are not entirely satisfactory to holders, and they are not accepting sales very freely. The same can be said of good leaf, of which there was only a fair offering.

Of the 473 hhd. (old), 63 sold from $1 to $3.95, 14 from $4 to $5.95, 192 from $6 to $7.15 52 from $8 to $9.90, 14 from $10 to $11.75 and 7 from $12 to $13.50.

Of the 1,301 hhd. (new), 148 sold from $1 to $3.95, 423 from $4 to $5.95, 371 from $6 to $7.95, 144 from $8 to $9.95, 100 from $10 to $11.75, 79 from $12 to $14.75, 350 from $15 to $18 and 1 at $20.25.

FAST RUNS.

The Records Some Packets Have Made on the Upper Ohio.

The Thomas Swan, Buckeye State, Fleetwood, Bostona and the New Telegraph.

Mention was made yesterday that the elegant new steamer Telegraph, which passed up Sunday night for Pomeroy, was trying to beat all records for fast running. Whether she succeeded or not has not been learned.

Most all the packets have been on their metal of late, and the frequent notices made of the tests of speed have set the people to talking who take any interest in such matters.

There have been some fast runs in the days gone by, and if the Telegraph succeeded in breaking the record she is a hustler.

In 1851, the Telegraph No. 2 made the run from Cincinnati to Pittsburg in forty-four hours and forty-seven minutes. When this was announced many rivermen said it would be impossible for any other boat to beat that record. But they were mistaken. On the first of May, 1852, the Buckeye State left Cincinnati and landed at the Pittsburg wharf just forty-three hours afterwards. She made the run to Augusta on that trip in three hours and thirty-two minutes, to Ripley in four hours and nineteen minutes, and reached Maysville in just five hours, and Manchester fifty-six minutes later. The run to Portsmouth was made in nine hours and seventeen minutes.

In later years the Fleetwood's quick run from Cincinnati to Huntington was one of the notable ones. She reached Maysville in four hours and fifty-eight minutes, beating the Buckeye State's record to this point two minutes. In 1854 the Thomas Swan ran from Cincinnati to Maysville in four hours and fifty-four minutes, beating the Buckeye State's time six minutes, and the Fleetwood's four minutes. The Fleetwood, however made no landings, while the Buckeye State made all of them, and the Swan made two. On the Fleetwood's trip referred to she left Cincinnati at 3:56 p. m. and reached Portsmouth at 1:17 o'clock that night and was in Huntington at 5:14 next morning.

On January 1, 1878, the old Telegraph made the run from Cincinnati to Pomeroy in twenty-two hours and made twenty-seven landings. The Bostona's record from Cincinnati to Pomeroy is twenty-two hours and forty minutes, with heavy freight, and it is said that this is the record the new Telegraph started out Sunday to beat.

Since the above was written, a special to the Enquirer says: "The Telegraph reached Pomeroy Monday at 12:15 noon, with her colors flying, cannon booming and a man out on her boom waving a flag and blowing a horn. She made the run from Cincinnati in nineteen hours and fifteen minutes, beating her previous fast record."

MENTION was made yesterday of a fifty-seven pound catfish caught by Captain John Ruggles. He captured two other big fish and a lot of small ones in the same net at the time he caught the one first mentioned. The three large ones weighed about 150 pounds, one of them tipping the beam at eighty-seven pounds. This is the second big haul made by Captain Ruggles at the mouth of Cabin Creek in the past two or three weeks.

QUEER DOINGS.

A Man Imagines the Telephone Wire Affects His Life—Peculiar Hallucinations.

Several evening, ago, a man by the name of Wm. English called on 'Squire Grigsby, of Sardis, and surprised him by asking for a warrant for Mason and Robertson counties and the Maysville and Mt. Olivet Telephone Company. English said the counties were permitting the telephone to destroy his life. The 'Squire talked to him for a while and the fellow left. Later in the night English met Rufus Mullikin, Willie Dines and James Osborne on the streets of Sardis and opened fire upon them with a 38-caliber pistol. Osborn's life was saved only by his throwing his head back, the ball going through his hat and the powder burning his face considerably. English also fired several times at Harry Thompson, colored, who returned the fire. Fortunately no one was hit.

The next morning English was arrested by Constable Suit and several others near the Shannon "twin bridges." He would allow no one between him and the telephone claim he had to be near the wire so as to be charged with electricity to sustain life. He would keep directly under the wire as long as he was permitted to do so.

The officers brought him to Maysville, and lodged him in jail, where he is still confined. Physicians who examined him think he will soon be all right. It is said he had been frequenting a camp of Gypsy fortune-tellers on Shannon, and that his mental troubles are partly the result of listening to their tales. He formerly lived in Fleming County.

LABOR TROUBLES.

Strikes Inaugurated at a Number of Places.

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE IDLE.

The Entire Granite Industry of New England Liable to Be Shut Down by a Lockout—Indianapolis Cigar Makers Strike—Reading Railroad Men May Quit—Labor News from Other Sources.

BOSTON, May 3.—The quarrymen's union, of Quincy, held a meeting Saturday night which extended into the early hours Sunday morning, and voted to suspend work until a scale of prices was agreed to by the Granite Manufacturers' association. This action affects, indirectly, the entire granite industry in New England, and may result in a general lockout.

The members of the Granite Cutters' union will not handle the scab granite, or granite quarried by non-union men. It is estimated that there is a sufficient supply of granite on hand to keep the cutters busy three or four weeks. Should there be a general lockout as now seems inevitable there will be 2,500 men involved.

Reading Engineers to Strike.

NEW YORK, May 3.—The secret meeting of Division No. 157, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers on the Central railroad of New Jersey was held in Jersey City Sunday. M. N. Clapp, who presided, said that the meeting was entirely harmonious and that no trouble was anticipated with the railroad officials. Other engineers, however, declared that the meeting was exciting and stormy, and they would not be surprised if a strike was ordered, as the Reading system did intend to make a lower rate of wages.

Indianapolis Cigarmakers Strike.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 3.—Three hundred cigarmakers, representing the entire force employed in eighty different shops, went out on a strike yesterday upon a refusal of the bosses to increase wages $1 per 1,000. The demand was made several days ago and the bosses held a meeting and yesterday refused to accede to the demand. The manufacturers say that the increased price of Havana filling makes it impossible for them to pay higher wages on that class of goods, and their shops had as well be idle as at work at a loss.

Railroad Men Go Out.

CINCINNATI, May 3.—Two hundred men have gone out on a strike on the Kentucky Central and Louisville and Nashville railroads. Last Friday the men were reduced in wages from $1 35 to $1 25 per day. They had intended to ask for an increase to $1 50 from May 1. The men say the strike will be general along both roads, and that an effort will now be made to get the conductors, brakemen and engineers to join issue with them and tie up all traffic.

School Children Strike.

PHILADELPHIA, May 3.—Five hundred school children, connected with the Vaughn grammar school, in Kensington, went on a strike yesterday because a new principal has been placed in charge of the school. They locked the gates of the school by wrapping heavy wire about the iron posts, and it was found necessary to call in the aid of eight policemen, who finally drove the recalcitrant boys away and opened the school.

New York Carpenters Out.

NEW YORK, May 3.—About 300 members of the United English and German Carpenters' union of New York and vicinity struck because their bosses refused to sign the usual yearly agreement for a rate of pay per hour.

Chicago Boiler Makers.

CHICAGO, May 3.—The strike of the boiler makers of this city for a reduction in working hours was quietly inaugurated yesterday, and in consequence about 12,000 mechanics of that craft are idle.

Cleveland Coal Handlers Quit.

CLEVELAND, May 3.—Eight hundred coal handlers on the docks here struck yesterday for an advance of from twelve to 14 cents per ton.

Striking for Nine Hours.

NORWALK, Conn., May 3.—The Norwalk union carpenters have struck for nine hours work and ten hours pay per day.

Death of a Minister.

SHELBYVILLE, May 3.—Rev. Henry Eschmeyer, pastor of the First German Presbyterian church, died Monday night of the grip. He came to America from Prussia in 1848, and graduating at the Heidelberg college at Tiffin, O., entered the ministry in 1852. He became the pastor of the above-named church in 1876, and remained in its charge to his death. He was seventy-three years of age. His aged wife and five children survive him. The funeral will take place Wednesday. All the ministers in the city will participate in the ceremonies.

Another Bridge at Cincinnati.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The secretary of war has approved the project for the Cincinnati and Covington bridge with the condition that the south pier of the span shall be moved one hundred feet nearer the Kentucky shore, leaving the north pier as now located, thereby making the total span 850 feet.

Would Wipe Out the Town.

CREEDE, Colo., May 3.—For several days past the water in Willow creek has been rising steadily. Many streets in the lower part of the town are already flooded to a depth of several inches. A freshet in the creek is not at all unlikely, and would wipe out the town.

Collision of Freight Trains.

NEW YORK, May 2.—A collision of two freight trains occurred on the Pennsylvania railroad at Mammoth Junction, N. J., Saturday evening in which one tramp and nineteen horses were killed.

NINE BUSINESS HOUSES BURNED, Including the Postoffice and Contents at Mount Sterling, Ky.

MOUNT STERLING, May 3.—At 6:30 o'clock Sunday morning fire was discovered in the rear of the postoffice building on Main street, and in two hours' time the entire block from the Christian church on the west to the Fizer building on Broadway was in great danger. The high wind prevailing greatly hindered the work of the firemen, and as a result nine valuable business houses were destroyed.

The Sentinel (Democrat) newspaper office, J. H. Brunner's shoe store, the postoffice, Hainline's bazar, Enoch's bargain house and the business houses of T. P. Martin & Company, dry goods and notions; Walt M. Gay & Company, grocers, and Mrs. Kate O. Clark, millinery, are a mass of blackened ruins. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to have been caused by a match or a lighted cigar carelessly thrown in the rear of the postoffice, where the fire was first discovered.

Startling rumors were afloat that the postoffice had been robbed and then burned, but they lacked foundation in truth. Winchester was telegraphed to for help and responded with an engine. The Christian church was only saved from destruction by the energetic work of the firemen and the iron siding of The Sentinel Democrat adjoining. The interior of the church was badly damaged by water. The buildings burned were valuable and handsome business houses in the very center of the business part of the town, and their destruction is complete.

The total loss, as nearly as can be estimated, will reach $50,000, with insurance aggregating about one half that sum. The entire contents of the postoffice, valuable mail matter, etc., were destroyed. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Marshall, occupying rooms on the second floor, lost everything. The contents of the rooms over Enoch's bargain house, occupied as law offices, dressmaking establishments, etc., were lost. Taken altogether, the fire was one of the most disastrous in the city's history.

STORM DAMAGES.

Sunday Night's Storm Did a Vast Amount of Damage.

GOSHEN, Ind., May 3.—A rainstorm Sunday night was the heaviest experienced in this locality for years. Rock run and Elkhart rivers have both overrun their banks, the former having carried away a part of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern track so that trains could not reach this city.

Another Battle in Gambia.

LONDON, May 3.—An official dispatch from Bathurst, Gambia, says that Tonitaba was destroyed April 28, after a spirited defense. The town was strongly fortified, and was taken only after several determined assaults. Captain Roberts of the First West India regiment was mortally wounded, and ten men were seriously wounded. The enemy lost heavily. The British troops took 119 women and children to Bathurst to prevent their being seized for slaves.

No Cause for Suicide.

MADISON, Ind., May 3.—Anna Walker, aged twenty-two, unmarried, a recent college graduate and a bright, intelligent girl, committed suicide last Saturday while alone in her room at home, in Saluda township, this county. Her parents were in the field and her brother was away at work. She left a note telling where they were. The tone of the letter indicates an unsettled mind. The coroner returned a verdict attributing the cause to despondency, resultant of the grip.

LIMA, O., May 3.—A fraud giving the name of J. W. Fruit is traveling through the southern portion of this internal revenue district representing himself as an internal revenue officer and agent and has been collecting money from tobacco and cigar dealers.
